

Berkeley Life

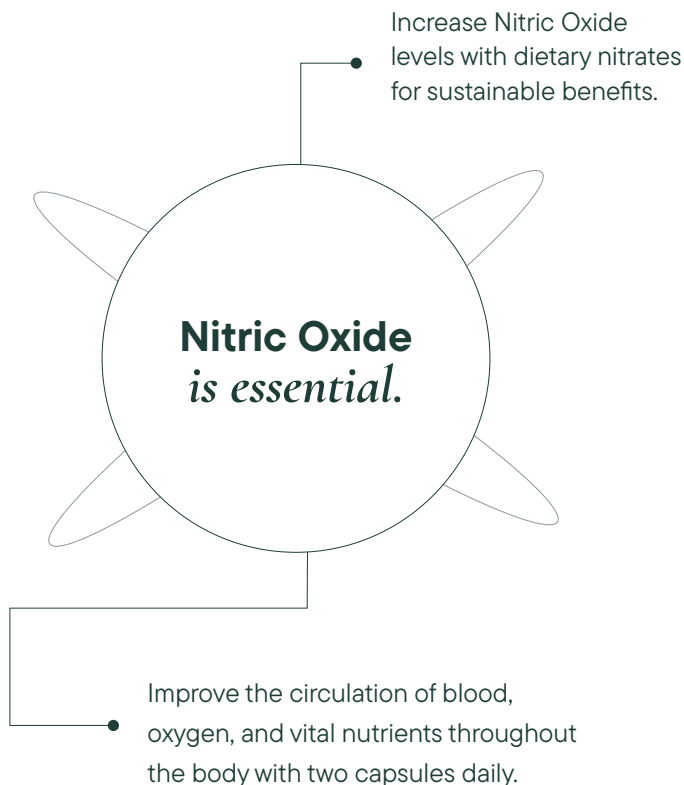

Nitric Oxide Foundation

Experience results proven in a double-blind, placebo-controlled clinical trial.¹

Wellness begins with better blood flow.

Optimal blood flow is the foundation of a healthy body. One way to support better blood flow is through Nitric Oxide production. Our bodies convert dietary nitrates from leafy greens into Nitric Oxide, offering a range of health benefits from improved sexual function to regulated blood pressure. Boost your patients' dietary nitrate levels with two capsules of Berkeley Life Nitric Oxide Foundation daily.

Deliver total health support.

Introduce the full-body benefits of optimal blood flow to your patients. Enhance their Nitric Oxide levels with dietary nitrates supplements for better circulation, oxygen delivery, and nutrient absorption.

Key ingredients:

Proprietary nitrate blend: Promotes Nitric Oxide production with clinically proven ingredients. Just two capsules provide a full day of Nitric Oxide support.

Vitamin C: Supports nitrate-to-Nitric Oxide conversion and acts as an essential antioxidant.

Magnesium: Relaxes blood vessels to boost cardiovascular health and muscle function
Gluten-free, dairy-free, and vegan ingredients
NSF-GMP registered.
